GOVERNMENT'S REQUESTED VOIR DIRE QUESTIONS

The United States of America, by and through Assistant United States Attorneys Kimberly P. West and Aloke S. Chakravarty, respectfully requests that the Court ask prospective trial jurors in the above-captioned case the following questions:

1. Do any among you have any mental reservations or positive opinions regarding the United States immigration laws or proposed laws which would affect your judgment, so as to prevent you from rendering a fair and impartial verdict?
2. This case was investigated by Immigration and Customs Enforcement (formerly known as Immigration and Naturalization Services). Is there anything about your attitude towards that government agency, or any other law enforcement agency, which would prevent you from rendering a fair and impartial verdict?

3. Do any of you have any opinions whether religious faith should have any affect or influence on the interpretation of the immigration laws of the United States, positive or negative, so as to prevent you from rendering a fair and impartial verdict?

Respectfully submitted,

MICHAEL J. SULLIVAN
United States Attorney
